

This is a recomputation of a large room fire case which was used for blind validation. This computation was made using LES. For every Simtec update, this recomputation is performed to verify the update.

